

SCHOLARSHIPS & EXHIBITIONS.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Exhibition.

There are sixty-seven Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition only, and, except where the contrary is stated, both Students and Non-students are eligible. As a rule, they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders. Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks prior to the respective dates of the competitions. The holder of any R.A.M. or Associated Board Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to hold any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to a periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof. The Scholarships and Exhibitions comprise:—

Associated Board of the R.A.M. and R.C.M.

Local Centre Exhibitions.

Six Exhibitions, founded in 1897 in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of Her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, are offered by the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music, and are competed for annually by Candidates who have passed with Honours the Local Centre Examinations of the Associated Board. Three Exhibitions are tenable at the R.A.M. and R.C.M. respectively. Successful Candidates are entitled to at least two years' free musical education.

The competitions take place in July. Particulars can be obtained from the Secretary, Associated Board, 15, Bedford Square, London, W.C. 1.

The Bach and Beethoven Scholarships.

dramatic musical composition, with a declaration that it is his or her own unaided work. The Candidate may then be summoned to a viva voce examination before the Judges, that they may obtain an insight into his or her state of musical and general culture.

The successful Candidate will be entitled to three years' free musical education at the Royal Academy of Music, subject to determination at any time if the Scholar fail to make satisfactory progress with his or her studies, or to observe the regulations imposed by the Committee of Management.

In case of exceptional talent or promise, the period of tenure may be extended by one year. The Trustees are empowered to hand over to the holder of the Scholarship, or otherwise deal with at their discretion, any balance of revenue that may remain in their hands.

The next competition will be held at Michaelmas, 1927, unless extended.

John Thomas (Welsh) Scholarship.

Founded by subscription, 1883, collected mainly in the Principality, by JOHN THOMAS (Pencerdd Gwalia), Harpist to the late King Edward VII.

This is competed for triennially in September by Vocalists (who must be under twenty-one years of age) and Instrumentalists (who must be under eighteen) of both sexes, at alternate elections. Candidates must not be, nor ever have been, pupils of any public Metropolitan institution for musical instruction, and either they or their parents must have been born in Wales.

Each Candidate is required to pay a fee of One Guinea on entering his or her name, and must produce certificate of birth.

The successful Candidate is entitled to three years' free instruction in the Royal Academy of Music, subject to a payment of £4 4s. 0d. per Term.

The next competition will be for Instrumentalists, and will be held in September, 1929.

Thomas Threlfall Scholarship.

Presented by Mrs. THRELFALL, 1908, in memory of the late Mr. THOMAS THRELFALL, Chairman of the Committee of Management, 1886—1907.

This Scholarship is open to British subjects of either sex under the age of twenty-one on the date of competition. Present and past students of the R.A.M. are ineligible. The branch of music for which the Scholarship will be competed for is varied from time to time at the discretion of the Committee of Management. Candidates are required to pay an entry fee of One Guinea.

The successful Candidate is entitled to two years' free tuition at the Royal Academy of Music, and in cases of sufficient merit this period may be extended.

The next competition will take place in September, 1927, unless extended.

Josephine Troup Scholarship.

Founded by Miss E. J. TROUP, 1905.

This Scholarship is open to British-born females (whether studying at the Royal Academy of Music or not) who will be not less than 15 and not more than 25 years old on the first day of the month in which the Competition is held. It is awarded to the Candidate who, in the opinion of the Examiners, shall show the greatest promise of distinction in the Composition of Musical Works of importance (as distinguished from songs and trivial compositions), and particularly of Orchestral Works.

The Scholarship may be withheld if no Candidate of sufficient merit appears. The Scholarship is tenable for five years (subject to the Regulations of the Academy), and in cases of exceptional merit the tenure may be extended by one or two years. The value is £34 10s. 0d. per annum, which amount will be applied towards the payment of the Scholar's fees at the Royal Academy of Music, or at such other Institution either in Great Britain or abroad as shall be determined by the Committee of Management.

The next competition will be held in September, 1929, unless extended.
